

John Camiolo has been helping clients optimize their financial needs and employee benefits for nearly 20 years. In 1994 he founded the Custom Benefits Group, which was renamed John James Benefits, Ltd. in 2004. As one of the industry's top producers John has been influential in the shaping and distribution of healthcare in the New York area.

John has devoted most of his adult life to making other people's lives better. He is a true hero in Long Island philanthropy. Since 1995 he has been assisting Long Islanders in need of life-saving bone marrow transplants. He founded the Long Island Marrow Organization and currently heads the Long Island Marrow Organization and the Terry Farrell Marrow program. His work has helped register 20,000 potential marrow donors, raised more than $2,000,000 and facilitated over three dozen marrow transplants as a result of recruitment drives.

Most recently, these organizations under John's leadership have purchased, organized and deployed libraries of Netbooks to the Ronald McDonald Houses of LI and NYC, as well as the Memorial Sloan Kettering Pediatric Center Facility. The Netbooks are internet capable keeping children undergoing cancer treatment connected to their friends and families.

John has been honored with many awards including the "40 under 40" award presented by Long Island Business News, the Harriet Richter Award, as well as other prestigious recognition due to his devotion and dedication to helping others. He has been a loyal supporter of SLCD for many years and attends its fundraising events each year.

John is a graduate of the State University of Geneseo and resides in East Northport, NY with his wife Caryn and three children. His joys in life are his family, tennis, golf, skiing and charitable work.
